Everybody is talking of the coming Arion concert. That it will be the grand event of the senson is expected by all. From the well known talent of the Arions, from the acknowledged high reputation of their assistants, and from the well arranged programme comprising vocal and instrumental music from the best classical and serio-comic authors. We feel assured that none will be disappointed in having their tastes gratified and developed. As the proceeds are for the purpose of renovating the interior of the Congregational church all should make an effort to be present. The fol-lowing is the programme:
